Transcript taken from Andy's recording of the nave Shack Hack session

-----

- Bill: In some respects this works the same way as doing the Ouija and things like that. It's a case of calling out and looking for a response...
- Michael: Yep
- Bill: Um...the calling out depends...how did we start last time did we start with just a name or...
- Dee: We just said have you...is there anyone there and have you got a message for anyone in this room.
- Bill: Yes, that's correct yes yes. That's probably one of the best ways of doing it.
- Dee: ...because wasn't it my name that came out...
- Bill: Yes it was your name that came up and again that's not a particularly usual name.
- Dee: No, that's true.
- Bill: So, we'll do the same again. We'll basically just say y'know, is there anybody that would like to communicate with anybody here, if there is, please let us know and then you literally just listen. If anybody hears a word that they recognise then just call out and say what that word was.
- Dee: Or what you think it said.
- Bill: Or what you think it said, yes. It's not always particularly clear it's not always particularly loud so you have to concentrate. It's going to be sweeping; it can either sweep AM or FM this is gonna be sweeping FM. Oops and I've just turned it off instead of pressing the right button.
- Dee: Well done Bill.
- Bill: Good start!
- Laughter*
- Bill: Right, technologies beyond me.
- Unknown: Six again.
- Bill: Are there any spirits here that would like to give a message to somebody? Duncan Smith? I hope not! Laughter
- If any spirit would like to give a message to somebody here would they please say that persons name.
- If there are spirits present that would like to communicate with one of us, would you please say the name of the person you would like to communicate with.

Michael: Was that Cathy or...?

Pause

Various: Mike.

Michael: Mike? Was that me?

Bill: Do you have a message for Mike? Yes. Or yeah in fact. Could you give us the first part of that message, the first word?

Various: Soldiers

Michael: I knew a soldier that hanged himself.

Bill: No clues please.

Michael: But I won't say his name.

Bill: Is the message regarding a soldier that Mike knew that killed himself? No.

Dee: Did it say no?

Bill: It sounded like no to me. If the message is for Mike can you give us a word to indicate what that message is about? People at what?

Steph: Sounded to me like 'People at War'.

Dee: People at War – it did.

Steph: Yeah.

Michael: What's the name of the soldier?

Steph/Dee: Stuart.

Elaine: Stuart, yeah I heard that.

Bill: Anything else relevant, with that in mind, at all? Causes if it relates to you then you've got to carry on doing the questions. We don't know what to ask.

Michael: No idea about Stuart, no.

Bill: Do you have a message for anybody else here? If so please give the persons name. Is there anything we can do to help you, please say yes or no.

Michael: Steph? Is that right?

Dee: I thought is said Steph as well.

Bill: Did you just say Steph? Do you have a message for Steph? Do you have a message for anybody else? Peter? Is there anybody here you would like to give a message to? Is there anybody here you would like to give a message to; if so we need to know that persons name.

Michael: Did you wanna try an AM scan now?

Switched to AM

Steph: Are you Samuel Stimpson?

Bill: Yes.

Cris: Seems like the word two and number two keeps popping up.

Craig: Well there's two Sophia's.

Michael: Oh there's two Sophia's yeah

Craig: But they're both Stimpson.

Cris: A while ago is said two didn't it.

Craig: Yeah. Do you have a brother?

Craig: Was that 'absolutely'?

Dee: It sounded like absolutely.

Steph: Absolutely, yeah.

General agreement

Bill: Are you implying that you were Sophia Stimpson in one life but in your next life you were somebody else? Reincarnation, she could have come back as somebody in a second life, so...

Dee: In a minute she'll say Bill, you're completely confusing me.

Bill: Yeah. She could have been reincarnated as somebody else so she was Sophia Stimpson but wasn't in their last life.

Dee: Do you have anyone with you that wants to communicate with someone here? If so please say their name.

Bill: Sounded like 'him' to me.

Dee: Yes.

Bill: Is it a man present here now that you w...sorry...is it a man present here now who you would like to talk with? Urgent. Do you have a message for one of the males here?

Kevin: On his own.

Steph: Yeah, on his own.

Bill: That's awkward. A private message and he wants to relay it when Gerrard's only on his own.

Dee: Maybe you need to say something to it so it can hear your voice. Say, do you have a message for me.

Gerry: Hello this is Gerry have you, do you have a message for me?

Cris/Dee: 'Anything'

Bill: Anything? Not very useful.

Dee: What is your name?

Dee: One word, very clearly.

Bill: Are you going to stay in a hotel? In America?

Dee: Do you listen to the four seasons?

Bill: Or listen to the four seasons, yes.

Cris: That might be a sign.
