Other Information

LPS members Marion had a strange experience the evening before the investigation. This is her report.

I saw this man (see drawing) walking through a bedroom in the pub (Room confirmed when on a tour with Manila) When relating this story to Bill King he said it was the dress of the cavalier army. The man was shaggy haired with part of it pulled back and done up with a bit of ribbon. Usually they only have one cross strap for the sword. This man was left-handed.

I showed the drawing to Manila and she said it matched a description of a man seen standing in the fireplace who had straps of what looked like a red colour. I asked if she had a small room upstairs with a bed in the middle and a space between the bed and the wall. She said yes and we went up to see it. I stood between the bed and the wall and this was the room I had seen this man walking through. She had stopped using this room two weeks before as she felt that something was in there.

I also felt a connection with the east coast of Scotland though I haven't a clue why.
