General

Weather: Very Windy and light drizzle at times

Visibility: Good

Ambient Sounds: Traffic Noise from the nearby road and the wind blowing through the trees and over open ground made it almost impossible to conduct EVP experiments.

Pre-Vigil

20:50 As we stood deciding where we were going, Elaine felt as she was being watched. (Editor's Note: This would have been just inside the park directly opposite the area where we had parked and a few metres west of the avenue of tree.

Vigil 1: Bottom of Track to Monument – 21:15 to 22:00

Team one had hoped to investigate at the monument but found the distance to cover was too great and Elaine was not able to cover the distance due to her health. Andy did briefly walk to the top of the hill where there was a marker but returned to rejoin Elaine. Therefore Team one settled at a point just past a gate on a path that leads to the monument. For the position of the team see the plan on the next page.

21:19 Elaine feels drawn to the gate.

21:30 Andy begins an EMF experiment by placing the EMF meter on the ground a short distance from the team and focusing the camcorder on to it. Andy also begins an EVP experiment.

Andy takes a temperature reading of +10.8°C.

21:31 As Elaine was looking at the gate a black shadow walked past.

21:40 Andy observes a blue light halfway up the path that is high up in the trees on the left-hand side as you face up the path. Seconds later Andy is hit on the head by a branch falling and then hit again by a second branch.

21:45 Elaine has the image of a runaway cart.

21:49 Andy and Elaine both heard a noise which was probably an animal of some kind moving through the undergrowth.

Vigil 2: Trees near A41 – 22:08 to 23:00

The team had originally gone to the circle of trees in the northeast area of the park but due to the velocity of the wind had found it impossible to stay there as it was like sitting in a wind tunnel. They therefore relocated to trees nearby (to the west) that offered more shelter. For the position of the team see the plan on the next page.

Elaine sat facing east-southeast. She measured the temperature at +11.1°C. Andy sat just near to Elaine also facing east-southeast. He measured the temperature at temperature 11.4°C.

22:08 At the start of this vigil Andy placed his EMF meter on the ground and tried to film it.

Andy begins an EVP experiment.

22:26 Elaine was looking over at the group of trees where she observes a white figure. She informs Andy who does not see the figure.

22:31 Andy has a feeling of a sense of acceptance come over him and this is followed by a blast of warm air on the right side of his body and hand. Andy takes a temperature reading of +11.3°C.

22:35 Andy has a sense that there is a dark figure of a man standing in an area a few metres from them and Andy senses that this man has been standing there observing them for a short time. Andy turns and informs Elaine who confirms she has also felt this. Andy gets up and conducts an EMF sweep of this area but there is no EMF reading and the sense of the man has now gone.

22:40 Elaine is drawn to the dip by the road as if someone is lying in wait.

22:48 Elaine gets dust in her eyes although Andy does not. Andy states it could have come from the nearby road surface.

22:51 Elaine was looking to the trees in the distance and could see someone walking between them. She informs Andy who tells her he cannot see anything there.

Vigil 3: The Bridge – 23:13 to 23:50

Elaine sat west by south. She measures the temperature at +11.7°C. Andy is sat next to her just behind a pillar. For the position of the team see the plan on the previous page.

At the start of this vigil Andy placed his EMF meter a short distance from the team on the ground and filmed it.

Andy also begins an EVP experiment.

23:19 As Elaine was looking up the avenue of trees there was a torch light coming towards her this later turned out to be Bill's team.

23:22 Elaine hears Andy's name being called to her right, when looking around Andy was standing over by the map of the park which is on her left.

23:32 Elaine has the impression of a woman in white, flowers in her hair and dancing around a fire.

23:35 Andy and Elaine conduct an EVP experiment by being in front of the camcorder which is filming at the time (despite the interruption of loud noises from the passing traffic nearby and the wind which was blowing very hard). The team ask for a sign of a spirit being present and at that point the camera and tripod are blown over by a big gust of wind and the experiment ends. The team put this down to wind conditions and not paranormal activity.

Post-Investigation

Andy has checked his sound recordings and there is nothing on them paranormal as the sound from the wind is too loud to hear anything else. Andy has no paranormal activity on film or photographs.
