Thundridge, Old Church

As Andy and Marion waited in the car by the locked gates Marion said to Andy that the small gate to the right had just opened. He pointed out that there wasn't a gate there. Marion was walking up lane had the name Marilyn. Andy experienced nothing paranormal at this location.

Tewin, St Peter

Pre-Vigil

Walking up to the church Marion said to Steph, how lovely it would be to drive up here in a horse and carriage

Vigil 1 – 22:35 to 23:10

Marion observes a white shape move from right to left behind graves in front of field and gets the name Madeleine.

Vigil 2 – 23:19 to 23:55

Marion observes a dot of yellow light on roof of small building attached to church.

23:36 Marion gets the name Maxwell.

23:27 Marion hears mans voice to her right.

23:40 Marion feels very alone and observes movement to her right.

23:41 Andy is experiencing a headache when he is seated on his seat. He moves away from the area and feels that the headache seems to be less painful. However when he sits down in the same area he reports to Marion that his headache is worse.

23:45 Marion feels lonely and gets the name Sebastian Broome.

23:46 Marion hears the words 'sixpence for my life. I was robbed and murdered' ... followed by a pause then the word 'tinker'.

Investigation Site Thundridge, Old Church and Tewin, St Peter

Investigation Date 13th March 2009

23:55 Marion hears a woman say ‘Carriage and horses....They were Rainbow Days’.

Vigil 3 – 00:03 to 00:35

00:08 Marion gets the names Margaret and Beth.

00:18 Marion gets the words pig in a poke and Shaftsbury Avenue.

00:28 Marion hears the name Charlie and pancreatic cancer.

Marion observes a very pretty young woman has just walked up and sat looking at the daffodils. She has long wavy dark hair that shines. She is in ordinary Victorian/Edwardian country dress. A long woollen dark green skirt and russet coloured jacket that is fitted at the waist before flaring out for a few inches. It has a round collar and puffed sleeves and dark brown buttons. Marion also gets the name Dangerfield (which she also picked up at Codicote).

Post Vigil

DVD footage shows a flash of light near the monument on vigil three which maybe a laser beam from another team as it moves quickly. What is interesting is that on the first vigil the camera was stationed in front of the tomb with the tree growing out of it and was left to film on its own. When footage was checked there is no film as the camera switches itself off. This is the same location where on a previous visit Andy's batteries failed in a camera.

There are no paranormal sounds on sound recordings taken. Marion did have some interesting photographs in particular one bright orb

Post Investigation – Ghostly headlights on Lower Luton Road?

Driving home from the Tewin Investigation along the Lower Luton Road, Andy and Marion approached a bend in the road that has a brick wall on one side as part of the railway embankment.

The only other vehicles on this part of the road were the car Andy and Marion were in and a motorbike behind the car. As Andy and Marion approached the bend, Andy reduced his headlights from full to normal as he had observed the full beam headlights of a car coming from the other direction being reflected off a brick wall directly in front of him. However when Andy and Marion drove around the bend there was no other vehicle in sight and the road was in darkness.

Conclusion

This part of the road is where the road goes in a straight line to Luton and under a bridge. Though this is some distance away from the brick wall in the bend of the road. The headlights were clearly visible as those of a car coming the other way and in such a short time span of seconds. Even a vehicle running around further up the road would have been seen. There was a motorbike behind our vehicle at the time but he was so close to my rear bumper his lights were on the rear of the car and did not match what was observed on the wall that were two light beams. The only other non paranormal explanation is that it was my own car headlights or I was disoriented. However I had reduced my car headlights from full beam to normal before I got to the bend and the lights from the other direction did not diminish until we went around the bend and then into total darkness
