

Horse Cross

This haunting is slightly different to the others being that a story says the ghosts of monks are said to only appear on the above date every five years. The exact location that the monks are said to appear is not known; only the area is known.